The Season of Mercy . . . again

I. The Doctrine of Repetition and Reminders

- John 16:4
- God wants His Word to be repeated in our lives.
  - Deuteronomy 6:4-9
- God wants the Gospel to be repeated in our lives.
  - I Corinthians 15:1
- God also wants biblical prophecy to be repeated in our lives.
  - Jude 1:17, II Peter 3:1-2
- God wants commands to use our gifts to be repeated in our lives.
  - II Timothy 1"6
- God wants His expectations for righteous character to be repeated in our lives.
  - II Peter 1:12; II Peter 1:5-7
- God wants the importance of obedience to be repeated in our lives.
  - Titus 3:1
- God wants the reality of consequences to be repeated in our lives.
  - Jude 1:5
- God wants all of the spiritual lessons we've learned to be repeated in our lives.
  - II Thessalonians 2:4; Matthew 16:9; II Peter 1:12
- God wants us to be reminded of His great deeds.
  - Psalm 77:11

II. The Season of Mercy Overview

- God's mercy is shown in not immediately sending us to hell.
- God's mercy is shown in His creation of the world.
- God's mercy is shown in His gift of work.
- God's mercy is shown in how God worked in our ancestors to bring us unto His plan.
- God's mercy is shown in how He provided for our atonement.
- God's mercy is shown in His gift of procreation.
- God's mercy is shown in His consistent consequences for sin.
- God's mercy is shown in His delight of personal sacrifice.
- God's mercy is shown in His bountiful and abundant gifts.
- Each of emphasis encompass the holiday themes and salvation focus of the Season of Mercy.
  - Each holiday is designed to help us focus on one element of God's mercy, but also weave all the individual elements together in a tapestry of praise to God.

The Celebration of God podcast

The Celebration of God podcast