The Season of Mercy Overview

For the months of September and October and November, we want to put a special emphasis on God's mercy. It's a broad topic that touches every second of every day, so there's no way for it to get old, stale, boring, or irrelevant.

- Creation Week
  - 1st Full Week in September
  - Celebration of Creation, Anticipation of the New Heaven and New Earth

- Labor Day
  - 1st Monday in September
  - Celebration of the Gift of Work, Preparation for the New Celebration of God Year, Anticipation of Perfected Work in Glory

- Grandparent's Day
  - 1st Sunday after Labor Day
  - Celebration of God's gift of Grandparents and other Elders, Anticipation of God's potential plan for our future family.

- Day of Atonement
  - Changes from Year to Year
  - Observation of the the Autumn Solemnity: The Fall of Man, Anticipation of the Lamb of God

- Halloween
  - October 31st
  - Celebration of Promised Grace, Observation of the Consequences of Sin (fear, death, etc.), Anticipation of Salvation

- Veteran's Day
  - November 11th
  - Celebration of Sacrifice, Observance of Spiritual Warfare, Anticipation of Eternal Freedom and Peace with Christ

- Thanksgiving
  - 4th Thursday in November
  - Celebration of Mercy, Grace, and Blessings

The Celebration of God podcast